Darlene's message to all her readers --- “THANK YOU!!! Thank you for loving my characters as much as I do! For wanting to hear their stories! And for wanting more! OMG!!! ### Marcus' Mortal Embrace teaser –

He tilted her head slightly as his tongue swept in and chased hers in an onslaught of sensation. He moaned deep in his chest as her hands slid up and into his hair, holding him in place as she returned his kiss. Their teeth clacked together as their tongues dueled in what was swiftly becoming a passionate embrace. Marcus's hands slid to the curve of her backside as he pressed himself against her. He felt her shiver at the contact and groaned once again.

Marcus' Mortal Embrace teaser – Marcus felt a strange tingling run through his body when the mortal turned around and looked at him. She was absolutely breathtaking. She was tall – at least five nine, he surmised in an instant – and curvy. Her dark chestnut hair fell in waves around her face and over her shoulders – hi-lighting her most compelling features – her deep blue eyes. They were the color of the finest sapphires and Marcus found himself getting lost in their steady gaze as she watched him watching her. Jesus! He mentally shook himself, and gave her a smile, but when she began to nervously explain to him why she was in the kitchen, and apologize for waking him – he felt the overpowering urge to pull her into his arms and comfort her. Just what in the bloody hell?
